

SPIRIT OF CHRISTMAS PREVAELS IN EMPORIA

Mrs. R. J. Green Entertains Members of Book Club in Honor of Her Sister.

WANT TO BETTER CONDITIONS

Laymen's League Will Continue Efforts to Suppress Vice in Town.
Miss Davidson to Wed Richard M.
Irby on December 29.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
EMPORIA, VA., December 25.—Suggestive of the Christmas season, the home of Mrs. R. J. Green was gay with red poinsettias on Friday evening, when she entertained the Book Club at her home. The guest of honor on this occasion was Mrs. Green's sister, Mrs. J. H. Drewry, of Clifton Forge. Miss Eleanor Tillar rendered two musical numbers, "Shubert's Serenade" and the quartet from "Hilkoletto." In the game of forty-two, which followed, Mrs. J. C. Warren won the club prize and Miss Fannie Briggs, the guest prize. Those present were as follows: Mrs. J. H. Drewry, Mrs. J. C. Warren, Mrs. D. T. Prince, Mrs. J. R. Bailey, Mrs. W. D. Dew, Mrs. W. T. Tillar, Mrs. W. W. Robertson, Misses Fannie Briggs, Laura Briggs, Marjorie Atkinson, Alma Robinson, Mary Turner and Eleanor Tillar.

The Jolly Twelve assembled for a regular meeting on Wednesday afternoon in the home of Miss Sallie Bailey. Potted plants and ferns furnished the decorations. Domino cards were played at three tables. The club prize was won by Miss Bettie Lee and the guest prize by Miss Fannie Tillar. Those present were: Misses Sara Briggs, Ida Cato, Mary Cochran, Bettie Lee, Susie Powell, Helen Vincent, Mary Wood, Mattie Wyche, Eleanor Tillar, Fannie Tillar, Rose Price, Grace Lear, Mary Tillar and Mrs. A. M. Porter.

Sunday afternoon about thirty members assembled at the Presbyterian Church, when the Laymen's League met in regular session. W. R. Cato presiding. The report of the committee on vice conditions was heard, and the work will be continued. Three resolutions were adopted—to request legislators to raise the age of consent in Virginia from fourteen to eighteen; to make the gambling law more effective, and to appoint a committee to act with the other organizations of the town to work for a higher standard in the moving picture theater.

Charles H. Bowers, president here, from Mr. and Mrs. Charles Edward Davidson, announcing the approaching marriage of their daughter, Mabel Woodson, to Richard Monroe Irby. The marriage will be celebrated in Lexington on December 29. Mr. Irby is a former principal of the Greenville County High School and Miss Davidson was a teacher in the school.

Otto Cato, United States Navy, spent a few days last week with his parents in Emporia. Soon after Christmas he will sail for the Philippines, where he will remain for the next three years.

Mr. J. B. Stalling is spending the Christmas with his family here.

Mrs. J. B. Mason is on an extended visit in the North. She will visit relatives in Washington, Baltimore and Philadelphia before returning to Emporia.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Bailey are in New York for the holidays. They will visit relatives in Richmond before returning to Emporia.

Flournoy Tillar has as his guests his schoolmates, Edwin Nelson, of Florida, and Gallatin Paxton, of Mississippi. Mr. Tillar and his guests, accompanied by Miss Eleanor Tillar, will motor to Richmond on Wednesday to attend the Kappa Alpha convention at the Jefferson Hotel.

The following young men have arrived here for the holidays: George Wood, from the Medical College of Virginia, Richmond; James Field, from Richmond College; James Briggs, from Fishburne Academy; Flournoy Tillar, from Washington and Lee; Gordon Vincent and Willie Squire, from Randolph-Macon College; Paul King, from Cornell; Edward Jordan, from Princeton; John Cato, a teacher in the John Marshall High School, Richmond; is spending Christmas with his parents, Miss Margetta Cato is also home, from Crittenden, for the holidays.

The Methodist Church will be dedicated on January 2. Bishop Collins Denny will preach the dedicatory sermon. Rev. Fred Davis, of Petersburg, a former pastor, will also be here to assist in the service.

After a visit to her niece, Mrs. Turner Chambliss, Mrs. Roswell Atkinson, the wife of a former Governor of Georgia, has returned to her home in Atlanta.

Mrs. P. H. Drewry, of Clifton Forge, has returned home, after spending some time with her mother, Mrs. W. H. Chambliss, and her sister, Mrs. R. J. Green.

Mrs. A. L. Davis, of Petersburg, has been a recent guest of Mrs. E. E. Goodwyn.

W. R. Cato, for more than ten years chairman of the board of supervisors, has resigned to take up his duties as a member of the House of Delegates. The new members of the board elected at this meeting were W. T. Tillar and J. S. Jones.

Among the Emporia people who were in Richmond last week were Mrs. H. L. Taylor, Miss Elizabeth Taylor, Mrs. R. T. McNair, Mrs. L. M. Lee, Miss Lucy Brittle, Miss Delta Hastings and Miss Helen Vincent.

W. R. Cato and daughter, Miss Hattie Maddux, and Miss Etta Belle Walker were in Petersburg on Tuesday.

HARRISONBURG

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
HARRISONBURG, VA., December 25.—Mrs. J. E. Cannaday and little son have returned to Charleston, W. Va., after a visit to her father, General John E. Rother.

Rev. J. D. Hamaker, of Strasburg, was a guest this week of his son, A. H. Hamaker. He recently returned from a Baltimore hospital, where he was under treatment for several weeks.

Julian A. Burruss, president of the State Normal School, and Mrs. Burruss, will spend the Christmas holidays in Cincinnati as guests of Mrs. Ebbert, mother of Mrs. Burruss.

Mrs. Winfield Liggett returned this week from a visit in Portsmouth and Washington. She was accompanied home by her son, Rush Liggett, of Atlanta, Ga.

Mr. and Mrs. Lurty N. Harris, of Jennings, W. Va., are visiting relatives in Harrisonburg.

Mrs. Samuel Coffmann is with her daughter, Mrs. T. H. Epes, in Richmond.

Mrs. J. H. P. Cornell, who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. D. O. Dechert, in this week for Roanoke to visit her son, James Cornell.

L. J. Myers, president of the First National Bank, and Mrs. Myers returned several days ago from Baltimore, where Mr. Myers had been under treatment at Johns-Hopkins Hospital.

For the Outdoor Girl

Photo by Underwood & Underwood.

This charming sweater set, primarily intended for the outdoor girl, has become so popular that all those desiring a chic combination have taken to it. The model is a silk set in banana color, with white coat and deep-girdle sash and the smartest of caps.

Mrs. H. H. Sherman, of Staunton, was a guest this week of Mrs. W. C. Switzer.

Mrs. F. J. Manning, of Charleston, W. Va., was a recent guest of her sisters, Mrs. G. R. Eastham and Miss Alice Cowan.

Among the students at home here for the holidays are Miss Lucy Cabell Koller, from Randolph-Macon Woman's College, Lynchburg; Miss Bertha Garber, Belmont Seminary, Tennessee; Miss Eleanor Sublett, St. Mary's School, Raleigh; Misses Imogen and Pamela Hollomon, Fausch Institute, Warren-

IVOR

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

IVOR, VA., December 25.—Mr. and Mrs. James Dole, of Norfolk, are visiting the former's brother, Dr. J. T. Dole.

F. J. Holmes, of Wakefield, was a recent guest of Mrs. J. L. Pulley.

Miss Blanche Bessley left on Monday for Edinburg, Va., where she will spend the holidays.

Professor A. B. Carson was called by telegram on Sunday to South Carolina to see his wife, who is very ill at her old home there.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Rawls have returned from their wedding trip, and are residing in Ivor.

The bazaar held by the women of the Baptist Church on Wednesday was quite a success, and a large sum was realized.

BABY A SIGHT FROM HER SKIN

Blister Spread All Over Face and Hands. Itched and Burned.

HEALED BY CUTICURA
SOAP AND OINTMENT

"My baby began by breaking out in the face with white blisters which began spreading all over her face and hands. She was a sight, her mouth and chin one thick scale. The pimples itched and burned and she scratched them causing them to spread very rapidly, and seemed even to affect her stomach and digestion. She not only lost her sleep herself, but kept the whole family disturbed at night crying."

After a visit to her niece, Mrs. Turner Chambliss, Mrs. Roswell Atkinson, the wife of a former Governor of Georgia, has returned to her home in Atlanta.

Mrs. P. H. Drewry, of Clifton Forge, has returned home, after spending some time with her mother, Mrs. W. H. Chambliss, and her sister, Mrs. R. J. Green.

Mrs. A. L. Davis, of Petersburg, has been a recent guest of Mrs. E. E. Goodwyn.

W. R. Cato, for more than ten years chairman of the board of supervisors, has resigned to take up his duties as a member of the House of Delegates. The new members of the board elected at this meeting were W. T. Tillar and J. S. Jones.

Among the Emporia people who were in Richmond last week were Mrs. H. L. Taylor, Miss Elizabeth Taylor, Mrs. R. T. McNair, Mrs. L. M. Lee, Miss Lucy Brittle, Miss Delta Hastings and Miss Helen Vincent.

W. R. Cato and daughter, Miss Hattie Maddux, and Miss Etta Belle Walker were in Petersburg on Tuesday.

Mrs. P. H. Drewry, of Clifton Forge, has returned home, after spending some time with her mother, Mrs. W. H. Chambliss, and her sister, Mrs. R. J. Green.

Mrs. A. L. Davis, of Petersburg, has been a recent guest of Mrs. E. E. Goodwyn.

W. R. Cato, for more than ten years chairman of the board of supervisors, has resigned to take up his duties as a member of the House of Delegates. The new members of the board elected at this meeting were W. T. Tillar and J. S. Jones.

Julian A. Burruss, president of the State Normal School, and Mrs. Burruss, will spend the Christmas holidays in Cincinnati as guests of Mrs. Ebbert, mother of Mrs. Burruss.

Mrs. Winfield Liggett returned this week from a visit in Portsmouth and Washington. She was accompanied home by her son, Rush Liggett, of Atlanta, Ga.

Mr. and Mrs. Lurty N. Harris, of Jennings, W. Va., are visiting relatives in Harrisonburg.

Mrs. Samuel Coffmann is with her daughter, Mrs. T. H. Epes, in Richmond.

Mrs. J. H. P. Cornell, who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. D. O. Dechert, in this week for Roanoke to visit her son, James Cornell.

L. J. Myers, president of the First National Bank, and Mrs. Myers returned several days ago from Baltimore, where Mr. Myers had been under treatment at Johns-Hopkins Hospital.

Mrs. J. H. P. Cornell, who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. D. O. Dechert, in this week for Roanoke to visit her son, James Cornell.

L. J. Myers, president of the First National Bank, and Mrs. Myers returned several days ago from Baltimore, where Mr. Myers had been under treatment at Johns-Hopkins Hospital.

Mrs. J. H. P. Cornell, who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. D. O. Dechert, in this week for Roanoke to visit her son, James Cornell.

L. J. Myers, president of the First National Bank, and Mrs. Myers returned several days ago from Baltimore, where Mr. Myers had been under treatment at Johns-Hopkins Hospital.

Mrs. J. H. P. Cornell, who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. D. O. Dechert, in this week for Roanoke to visit her son, James Cornell.

L. J. Myers, president of the First National Bank, and Mrs. Myers returned several days ago from Baltimore, where Mr. Myers had been under treatment at Johns-Hopkins Hospital.

Mrs. J. H. P. Cornell, who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. D. O. Dechert, in this week for Roanoke to visit her son, James Cornell.

L. J. Myers, president of the First National Bank, and Mrs. Myers returned several days ago from Baltimore, where Mr. Myers had been under treatment at Johns-Hopkins Hospital.

Mrs. J. H. P. Cornell, who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. D. O. Dechert, in this week for Roanoke to visit her son, James Cornell.

L. J. Myers, president of the First National Bank, and Mrs. Myers returned several days ago from Baltimore, where Mr. Myers had been under treatment at Johns-Hopkins Hospital.

Mrs. J. H. P. Cornell, who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. D. O. Dechert, in this week for Roanoke to visit her son, James Cornell.

L. J. Myers, president of the First National Bank, and Mrs. Myers returned several days ago from Baltimore, where Mr. Myers had been under treatment at Johns-Hopkins Hospital.

Mrs. J. H. P. Cornell, who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. D. O. Dechert, in this week for Roanoke to visit her son, James Cornell.

L. J. Myers, president of the First National Bank, and Mrs. Myers returned several days ago from Baltimore, where Mr. Myers had been under treatment at Johns-Hopkins Hospital.

Mrs. J. H. P. Cornell, who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. D. O. Dechert, in this week for Roanoke to visit her son, James Cornell.

L. J. Myers, president of the First National Bank, and Mrs. Myers returned several days ago from Baltimore, where Mr. Myers had been under treatment at Johns-Hopkins Hospital.

Mrs. J. H. P. Cornell, who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. D. O. Dechert, in this week for Roanoke to visit her son, James Cornell.

L. J. Myers, president of the First National Bank, and Mrs. Myers returned several days ago from Baltimore, where Mr. Myers had been under treatment at Johns-Hopkins Hospital.

Mrs. J. H. P. Cornell, who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. D. O. Dechert, in this week for Roanoke to visit her son, James Cornell.

L. J. Myers, president of the First National Bank, and Mrs. Myers returned several days ago from Baltimore, where Mr. Myers had been under treatment at Johns-Hopkins Hospital.

Mrs. J. H. P. Cornell, who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. D. O. Dechert, in this week for Roanoke to visit her son, James Cornell.

L. J. Myers, president of the First National Bank, and Mrs. Myers returned several days ago from Baltimore, where Mr. Myers had been under treatment at Johns-Hopkins Hospital.

Mrs. J. H. P. Cornell, who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. D. O. Dechert, in this week for Roanoke to visit her son, James Cornell.

L. J. Myers, president of the First National Bank, and Mrs. Myers returned several days ago from Baltimore, where Mr. Myers had been under treatment at Johns-Hopkins Hospital.

Mrs. J. H. P. Cornell, who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. D. O. Dechert, in this week for Roanoke to visit her son, James Cornell.

L. J. Myers, president of the First National Bank, and Mrs. Myers returned several days ago from Baltimore, where Mr. Myers had been under treatment at Johns-Hopkins Hospital.

Mrs. J. H. P. Cornell, who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. D. O. Dechert, in this week for Roanoke to visit her son, James Cornell.

L. J. Myers, president of the First National Bank, and Mrs. Myers returned several days ago from Baltimore, where Mr. Myers had been under treatment at Johns-Hopkins Hospital.

Mrs. J. H. P. Cornell, who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. D. O. Dechert, in this week for Roanoke to visit her son, James Cornell.

L. J. Myers, president of the First National Bank, and Mrs. Myers returned several days ago from Baltimore, where Mr. Myers had been under treatment at Johns-Hopkins Hospital.

Mrs. J. H. P. Cornell, who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. D. O. Dechert, in this week for Roanoke to visit her son, James Cornell.

L. J. Myers, president of the First National Bank, and Mrs. Myers returned several days ago from Baltimore, where Mr. Myers had been under treatment at Johns-Hopkins Hospital.

Mrs. J. H. P. Cornell, who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. D. O. Dechert, in this week for Roanoke to visit her son, James Cornell.

L. J. Myers, president of the First National Bank, and Mrs. Myers returned several days ago from Baltimore, where Mr. Myers had been under treatment at Johns-Hopkins Hospital.

Mrs. J. H. P. Cornell, who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. D. O. Dechert, in this week for Roanoke to visit her son, James Cornell.

L. J. Myers, president of the First National Bank, and Mrs. Myers returned several days ago from Baltimore, where Mr. Myers had been under treatment at Johns-Hopkins Hospital.

Mrs. J. H. P. Cornell, who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. D. O. Dechert, in this week for Roanoke to visit her son, James Cornell.

L. J. Myers, president of the First National Bank, and Mrs. Myers returned several days ago from Baltimore, where Mr. Myers had been under treatment at Johns-Hopkins Hospital.

Mrs. J. H. P. Cornell, who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. D. O. Dechert, in this week for Roanoke to visit her son, James Cornell.

L. J. Myers, president of the First National Bank, and Mrs. Myers returned several days ago from Baltimore, where Mr. Myers had been under treatment at Johns-Hopkins Hospital.

Mrs. J. H. P. Cornell, who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. D. O. Dechert, in this week for Roanoke to visit her son, James Cornell.

L. J. Myers, president of the First National Bank, and Mrs. Myers returned several days ago from Baltimore, where Mr. Myers had been under treatment at Johns-Hopkins Hospital.

Mrs. J. H. P. Cornell, who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. D. O. Dechert, in this week for Roanoke to visit her son, James Cornell.

L. J. Myers, president of the First National Bank, and Mrs. Myers returned several days ago from Baltimore, where Mr. Myers had been under treatment at Johns-Hopkins Hospital.

Mrs. J. H. P. Cornell, who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. D. O. Dechert, in this week for Roanoke to visit her son, James Cornell.

L. J. Myers, president of the First National Bank, and Mrs. Myers returned several days ago from Baltimore, where Mr. Myers had been under treatment at Johns-Hopkins Hospital.

Mrs. J. H. P. Cornell, who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. D. O. Dechert, in this week for Roanoke to visit her son, James Cornell.

L. J. Myers, president of the First National Bank, and Mrs. Myers returned several days ago from Baltimore, where Mr. Myers had been under treatment at Johns-Hopkins Hospital.

Mrs. J. H. P. Cornell, who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. D. O. Dechert, in this week for Roanoke to visit her son, James Cornell.

L. J. Myers, president of the First National Bank, and Mrs. Myers returned several days ago from Baltimore, where Mr. Myers had been under treatment at Johns-Hopkins Hospital.

Mrs. J. H. P. Cornell, who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. D. O. Dechert, in this week for Roanoke to visit her son, James Cornell.

L. J. Myers, president of the First National Bank, and Mrs. Myers returned several days ago from Baltimore, where Mr. Myers had been under treatment at Johns-Hopkins Hospital.

Mrs. J. H. P. Cornell, who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. D. O. Dechert, in this week for Roanoke to visit her son, James Cornell.

L. J. Myers, president of the First National Bank, and Mrs. Myers returned several days ago from Baltimore, where Mr. Myers had been under treatment at Johns-Hopkins Hospital.

Mrs. J. H. P. Cornell, who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. D. O. Dechert, in this week for Roanoke to visit her son, James Cornell.

L. J. Myers, president of the First National Bank, and Mrs. Myers returned several days ago from Baltimore, where Mr. Myers had been under treatment at Johns-Hopkins Hospital.

Mrs. J. H. P. Cornell, who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. D. O. Dechert, in this week for Roanoke to visit her son, James Cornell.

L. J. Myers, president of the First National Bank, and Mrs. Myers returned several days ago from Baltimore, where Mr. Myers had been under treatment at Johns-Hopkins Hospital.

Mrs. J. H. P. Cornell, who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. D. O. Dechert, in this week for Roanoke to visit her son, James Cornell.

L. J. Myers, president of the First National Bank, and Mrs. Myers returned several days ago from Baltimore, where Mr. Myers had been under treatment at Johns-Hopkins Hospital.

Mrs. J. H. P. Cornell, who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. D. O. Dechert, in this week for Roanoke to visit her son, James Cornell.

L. J. Myers, president of the First National Bank, and Mrs. Myers returned several days ago from Baltimore, where Mr. Myers had been under treatment at Johns-Hopkins Hospital.

Mrs. J. H. P. Cornell, who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. D. O. Dechert, in this week for Roanoke to visit her son, James Cornell.

L. J. Myers, president of the First National Bank, and Mrs. Myers returned several days ago from Baltimore, where Mr. Myers had been under treatment at Johns-Hopkins Hospital.

Mrs. J. H. P. Cornell, who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. D. O. Dechert, in this week for Roanoke to visit her son, James Cornell.

L. J. Myers, president of the First National Bank, and Mrs. Myers returned several days ago from Baltimore, where Mr. Myers had been under treatment at Johns-Hopkins Hospital.

Mrs. J. H. P. Cornell, who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. D. O. Dechert, in this week for Roanoke to visit her son, James Cornell.

L. J. Myers, president of the First National Bank, and Mrs. Myers returned several days ago from Baltimore, where Mr. Myers had been under treatment at Johns-Hopkins Hospital.

Mrs. J. H. P. Cornell, who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. D. O. Dechert, in this week for Roanoke to visit her son, James Cornell.

L. J. Myers, president of the First National Bank, and Mrs. Myers returned several days ago from Baltimore, where Mr. Myers had been under treatment at Johns-Hopkins Hospital.

Mrs. J. H. P. Cornell, who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. D. O. Dechert, in this week for Roanoke to visit her son, James Cornell.

L. J. Myers, president of the First National Bank, and Mrs. Myers returned several days ago from Baltimore, where Mr. Myers had been under treatment at Johns-Hopkins Hospital.

Mrs. J. H. P. Cornell, who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. D. O. Dechert, in this week for Roanoke to visit her son, James Cornell.

L. J. Myers, president of the First National Bank, and Mrs. Myers returned several days ago from Baltimore, where Mr. Myers had been under treatment at Johns-Hopkins Hospital.

Mrs. J. H. P. Cornell, who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. D. O. Dechert, in this week for Roanoke to visit her son, James Cornell.

L. J. Myers, president of the First National Bank, and Mrs. Myers returned several days ago from Baltimore, where Mr. Myers had been under treatment at Johns-Hopkins Hospital.

Mrs. J. H. P. Cornell, who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. D. O. Dechert, in this week for Roanoke to visit her son, James Cornell.

L. J. Myers, president of the First National Bank, and Mrs. Myers returned several days ago from Baltimore, where Mr. Myers had been under treatment at Johns-Hopkins Hospital.

Mrs. J. H. P. Cornell, who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. D. O. Dechert, in this week for Roanoke to visit her son, James Cornell.

L. J. Myers, president of the First National Bank, and Mrs. Myers returned several days ago from Baltimore, where Mr. Myers had been under treatment at Johns-Hopkins Hospital.

Mrs. J. H. P. Cornell, who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. D. O. Dechert, in this week for Roanoke to visit her son, James Cornell.

L. J. Myers, president of the First National Bank, and Mrs. Myers returned several days ago from Baltimore, where Mr. Myers had been under treatment at Johns-Hopkins Hospital.

Mrs. J. H. P. Cornell, who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. D. O. Dechert, in this week for Roanoke to visit her son, James Cornell.

L. J. Myers, president of the First National Bank, and Mrs. Myers returned several days ago from Baltimore, where Mr. Myers had been under treatment at Johns-Hopkins Hospital.

Mrs. J. H. P. Cornell, who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. D. O. Dechert, in this week for Roanoke to visit her son, James Cornell.

L. J. Myers, president of the First National Bank, and Mrs. Myers returned several days ago from Baltimore, where Mr. Myers had been under treatment at Johns-Hopkins Hospital.

Mrs. J. H. P. Cornell, who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. D. O. Dechert, in this week for Roanoke to visit her son, James Cornell.

L. J. Myers, president of the First National Bank, and Mrs. Myers returned several days ago from Baltimore, where Mr. Myers had been under treatment at Johns-Hopkins Hospital.

Mrs. J. H. P. Cornell, who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. D. O. Dechert, in this week for Roanoke to visit her son, James Cornell.

L. J. Myers, president of the First National Bank, and Mrs. Myers returned several days ago from Baltimore, where Mr. Myers had been under treatment at Johns-Hopkins Hospital.

Mrs. J. H. P. Cornell, who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. D. O. Dechert, in this week for Roanoke to visit her son, James Cornell.

L. J. Myers, president of the First National Bank, and Mrs. Myers returned several days ago from Baltimore, where Mr. Myers had been under treatment at Johns-Hopkins Hospital.

Mrs. J. H. P. Cornell, who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. D. O. Dechert, in this week for Roanoke to visit her son, James Cornell.

L. J. Myers, president of the First National Bank, and Mrs. Myers returned several days ago from Baltimore, where Mr. Myers had been under treatment at Johns-Hopkins Hospital.

Mrs. J. H. P. Cornell, who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. D. O. Dechert, in this week for Roanoke to visit her son, James Cornell.

L. J. Myers, president of the First National Bank, and Mrs. Myers returned several days ago from Baltimore, where Mr. Myers had been under treatment at Johns-Hopkins Hospital.

Mrs. J. H. P. Cornell, who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. D. O. Dechert, in this week for